From
the Principal

I have found myself yelling "Go Titans!" quite a bit lately. Mostly at basketball games, although an occasional "Go Titans" in the grocery store does help me get down the aisle faster. What is a Titan? According to Vocabulary.com, "A titan is an extremely important person. Albert Einstein was a titan in the world of science.

The noun titan comes from Greek mythology, in which the Titans were a race of gods. Today, a titan is someone who is god-like, or powerful and influential in a certain field." We can all be considered Titans as we are important people through God. Lean on Him and gain your power and strength through His word and power.

A Titan is also a team member of the Immanuel-Okawville and T-SJ Nashville basketball teams! Help me in cheering on the Lady Titans this weekend as they play in the state tournament on Saturday at Rend Lake College at 3:45 p.m. They are also very important people through Christ! Go Titans!

-because of Him,
Mrs. Amy Kurtz
